PERUVA PALOOZA

SUMMER READING CAMP

Rooted in imagination. Growing through community.

Peruva Palooza Summer Reading Camp was started by a few local moms who wanted to create a fun way for children to continue learning, exploring, and connecting throughout the summer. What began as a small community effort has now been passed on to the City of Peru Parks and Recreation so it can continue growing for years to come.

WHAT IS IT?

Peruva Palooza Summer Reading Camp is a weekly program where local volunteer Camp Hosts bring stories to life through books, activities, and hands-on fun for children and families!

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Each week, local volunteer Camp Hosts will choose a fun theme for the evening.

CAMP HOSTS WILL:

- ✓ Read a book that ties into their chosen theme
- ✓ Lead a craft, activity, or lesson afterward
- ✓ Create a fun, engaging experience for children and families

Every week is something new!

WHEN?

EVERY WEDNESDAY
in JUNE & JULY
@ 6:00 PM

WHERE?

Locations will vary weekly based on the Camp Host's chosen activity or theme.

Weekly locations and details will be announced on the City of Peru Parks and Recreation Facebook Page!

FREE TO ALL FAMILIES!

NO COST TO ATTEND.

Our goal is simple: To encourage reading, creativity, exploration, and community connection during the summer months.
